

HEALTH CARE: A Right OR A Privilege?

Test Your Knowledge: Answer the questions based on the video.

- Which of the following isn't one of the three "inalienable rights" named in the Declaration of Independence?
 - Liberty
 - Property
 - Life
 - The Pursuit of Happiness
- The rights named in the Declaration of Independence are _____ liberties.
 - National
 - Royal
 - Natural
 - Positive
- Which organization declared that "the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health is one of the fundamental rights of every human being"?
 - The World Health Organization
 - The American Civil Liberties Union
 - The Center for Disease Control and Prevention
 - The United Nations Human Rights Council
- Thomas Jefferson said that rights are...
 - Guaranteed by the President
 - Endowed by the U.S. Constitution
 - Delivered by government
 - Endowed by a Creator
- The Declaration of Independence declares that all men created equal. True / False
- The Constitution guarantees medical care as a human right. True / False
- Name two senators who endorse Medicare for All.

8. What are Leesa's main arguments?

9. What are Ethan's main arguments?
