

The Free Market & American Life

Classify aspects of American society into each of these categories – is there any crossover? Some things to think about are: health care, trade, banking, transport, the economy, government, local services (garbage collection, etc), the postal service, energy & utilities, natural resources, food, water, land...

